Who Chooses the MJIL?

Online Curriculum

The Master of Jurisprudence in Indian Law (MJIL) degree program from The University of Tulsa College of Law attracts students typically from five walks of life:

1. Tribal leaders and tribal administrators. The men and women in leadership and management roles at tribes, large and small, have a practical perspective on how meaningful it can be to gain a deep level of expertise on Federal Indian law.

2. Emerging professionals seeking an exciting, in-demand career. Many MJIL students have just recently completed their undergraduate studies and are looking to develop their knowledge, skills and connections. For students who majored or minored in disciplines like American Indian Studies, the MJIL program allows them to add practical legal knowledge to their historical and sociological perspectives, thereby opening many avenues for successful careers.

3. Practicing attorneys whose careers necessitate their investment in an Indian law degree. Attorneys choose the MJIL program because their interests have expanded since they first went into practice. The MJIL is an academic master’s degree program that helps these legal practitioners to become expert practitioners of Indian Law.

4. Mid-career professionals who want to shift gears and get into management or leadership positions. A significant number of MJIL students are professionals who are currently working for tribal, state and federal agencies, and who serve in management and supervisory roles. They want to develop the skills and know-how necessary to promote themselves into upper management and leadership positions. By gaining deep knowledge about Indian law through the MJIL program, they are able to achieve those career goals.

The information and insights offered in the MJIL program are unique and valuable.

The program has an unparalleled focus on the protection of Indian sovereignty. Instructors and professors from colleges and universities across the country are choosing to expand their knowledge through the MJIL program.

About half of the men and women who choose the MJIL program at TU Law are members of US Indian tribes.

Remembering September 11, 2001

It will have been 17-years, on September 11, 2001 the United States of America was attacked by the Islamic terrorist group called al-Qaeda.

Although al-Qaeda’s leader, Osama bin Laden, initially denied any involvement, in 2004 he claimed responsibility for the attacks.

The attack claimed the lives of 2,996 people and injured over 6,000 others and caused at least $10 billion in property and infrastructure damage and $3 trillion in total costs.

Al-Qaeda and bin Laden cited U.S. support of Israel, the presence of U.S. troops in Saudi Arabia and sanctions against Iraq as motives.

The attack was a series of four coordinated terrorist attacks. Four passenger airliners operated by two major U.S. passenger air carriers (United Airlines and American Airlines), all of which departed from airports on the north-eastern United States bound for California, were hijacked by nineteen al-Qaeda terrorists.

Having evaded capture for almost a decade, bin Laden was located and killed by SEAL Team Six of the U.S. military in May 2011.

And to the disapproval of many American citizens Osama bin Laden was given a full Muslim burial by the Obama administration paid for by the U.S. Tax payers.

It was the deadliest incident for firefighters and law enforcement officers in the history of the United States, with 343 and 72 killed respectively.

President Trump’s strategy for the “War on Terror” is to battle the Islamic extremist and their liberal supporter at home and abroad.

However, the enforcement of the immigration laws, border control and tighter screening of visa’s have been met with strong opposition by the left.

California Tribal Chairmen’s Association

The newly minted California Tribal Chairmen’s Association organizing council held its finalizing of the organizational documents meeting in Sacramento, California on August 14, 2018. The nine-member council spent no time coming to an agreement on the major issues.

Bo Mazzetti, Chairman of the Rincon Band of Luise-

no Indians said. “It went better than I thought it would.” “We have a lot of young leaders and they want this to happen and are willing to set aside their personal bias.”

He also expressed his gratitude for the professional guidance provided by Denis Turner, Executive Director for Southern California Tribal Chairmen’s Association, Inc. (SCTCA).

Turner has been acting as a consultant to the organizing council.

The next meeting is scheduled to be held in Sacramento on September 27, 2018.

The proposed organization documents are expected to be approved by the 70 or more Tribal Chairmen/woman.

My View—Your View

Ernie C. Salgado Jr.

OK, let us give you a little overview and hopefully you will be enlightened. And we want you to vote.

George Soros

He is a well-known supporter of American progressive and American liberal political causes and dispenses his donations through his foundation, the Open Society Foundations. Between 1979 and 2011, Soros donated more than $11 billion to various philanthropic causes; by 2017, his donations "on civil initiatives to reduce poverty and increase transparency, and on scholarships and universities around the world" totaled $12 billion. He influenced the collapse of communism in Eastern Europe in the late 1980s and early 1990s.

Saul David Alinsky

Saul David Alinsky (January 30, 1909 – June 12, 1972) was an American community organizer and writer. He is generally considered to be the founder of modern community organizing. He is often noted for his book Rules for Radicals (1971).

In the course of nearly four decades of political organizing, Alinsky received much criticism, but he also gained praise from many public figures.

His organizing skills were focused on improving the living conditions of poor communities across the United States.

In the 1950s, he began turning his attention to improving conditions in the black ghettos, beginning with Chicago's and later traveling to ghettos in California, Michigan, New York City, and a dozen other "trouble spots".

In the 1960s, his ideas were adapted by some U.S. college students and other young counterculture-era organizers, who used them as part of their strategies for organizing on campus and beyond.

In 1970, Time magazine wrote that "It is not too much to argue that American democracy is being altered by Alinsky's ideas." Conservative author William F. Buckley Jr. said in 1966 that Alinsky was "very close to being an organizational genius."

Saul Alinsky’s Doctrine: 8 steps to topple a nation and create a socialist state

- 1) Healthcare — Control healthcare and you control the people
- 2) Poverty — Increase the Poverty level as high as possible, poor people are easier to control and will not fight back if you are providing everything for them to live.

- 3) Debt — Increase the debt to an unsustainable level. That way you are able to increase taxes, and this will produce more poverty.
- 4) Gun Control — Remove the ability to defend themselves from the Government. That way you are able to create a police state.
- 5) Welfare — Take control of every aspect of their lives (Food, Housing, and Income).
- 6) Education — Take control of what people read and listen to — take control of what children learn in school.
- 7) Religion — Remove the belief in the God from the Government and schools.

- 8) Class Warfare — Divide the people into the wealthy and the poor. This will cause more discontent and it will be easier to take (Tax) the wealthy with the support of the poor.

William Charles "Bill" Ayers

Bill Ayers born December 26, 1944, is an American elementary education theorist and a leader in the counterculture movement who opposed US involvement in the Vietnam War.

He is known for his 1960s radical activism and his current work in education reform, curriculum and instruction. In 1969, he co-founded the Weather Underground, a self-described communist revolutionary group with the intent to overthrow imperialism, that conducted a campaign of bombing public buildings (including police stations, the US Capitol Building, and the Pentagon) during the 1960s and 1970s in response to US involvement in the Vietnam War.

He is a retired professor in the College of Education at the University of Illinois at Chicago, formerly holding the titles of Distinguished Professor of Education and Senior University Scholar.

During the 2008 US Presidential campaign, a controversy arose over his contacts with candidate Barack Obama. He is married to Bernardine Dohrn, who was also a leader in the Weather Underground.

When asked if he had any regrets he told reported his only regret was that he didn't do more.

U.N. Agenda 21

In a nutshell, the Agenda 21 plan calls for governments to take control of all land use and not leave any of the decision making in the hands of private property owners.

It is assumed that people are not good stewards of their land and the government will do a better job if they are in control. Individual rights in general are to give way to the needs of communities as determined by the governing body.

Moreover, people should be rounded up off the land and packed into human settlements, or islands of human habitation, close to employment centers and transportation.

Another program, called the Wildlands Project spells out how most of the land is to be set aside for non-humans.

U.N. Agenda 21 cites the affluence of Americans as being a major problem which needs to be corrected. It calls for lowering the standard of living for Americans so that the people in poorer countries will have more, a redistribution of wealth.

Although people around the world aspire to achieve the levels of prosperity we have in our country, and will risk their lives to get here.

Americans are cast in a very negative light and need to be taken down to a condition closer to average in the world. Only then, they say, will there be social justice which is a cornerstone of the U.N. Agenda 21 plan.

Cloward - Piven

The Cloward and Piven's article is focused on forcing the Democratic Party, which in 1966 controlled the presidency and both houses of the United States Congress, to take federal action to help the poor. They stated that full enrollment of those eligible for welfare "would produce bureaucratic disruption in welfare agencies and fiscal disruption in local and state governments" that would: "...deepen existing divisions among elements in the big-city Democratic coalition: the remaining white middle class, the working-class ethnic groups and the growing minority poor.

To avoid a further weakening of that historic coalition, a national Democratic administration would be constrained to advance a federal solution to poverty that would override local welfare failures, local class and racial conflicts and local revenue dilemmas."

The Obama-Clinton Cloward-Piven legacy. It's also not a coincidence that those who espoused the Cloward-Piven strategy were a group of radicals who have been a big part of Obama's life and education: Bill Ayers, Saul Alinsky, Bernardine Dohrn, Wade Rathke, George Soros and his boyhood mentor, Frank Marshal Davis, among others.

California Hits New Level of Insanity

Under Senate Bill 174, Non-citizens, including those in the country illegally, will be allowed to serve on boards and commissions in California if Gov. Jerry Brown signs a bill known as the California Inclusion Act.

Non-citizens, including those in the country illegally, will be allowed to serve on boards and commissions in California if Gov. Jerry Brown signs a bill known as the California Inclusion Act.

The state Legislature last week, qualified non-citizens would be eligible to be appointed to local boards such as planning commissions, and state boards that include the Fair Political Practices Commission, the Contractors State License Board and the Board of Registered Nursing.

The goal of its supporters is to allow people from different backgrounds an opportunity to serve the communities in which they live, sharing different perspectives that contribute to civic engagement.

Even some of you hard core liberals have to take note here. If this doesn't meet the definition of "Insanity" I have no Idea what will.

What next? Will people that have been deported be allowed to vote by absentee ballot?

We still have the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution that will hopefully void this nonsense.
