Cartilage Regeneration - Ground-breaking cartilage regeneration isn't exactly the Fountain of Youth. But for aging boomers and athletes with aching and injured ankle joints, it's close enough, making them feel almost new again. Podiatric foot and ankle surgeons are now utilizing revolutionary advances in cartilage regeneration for foot and ankle injuries. Evolving techniques include bioengineered (grown in a lab) scaffolding for reconstruction surgery, microfracture techniques, and stem cell cartilage regeneration that are being used to create cartilage-like tissue where once it was absent.

These are welcome discoveries. Ankle injuries among baby boomers are quite common because our joints degenerate with age. As joint strength fades, our bodies are more prone to injury. For athletes, especially, overuse and injury contribute to cartilage damage.

Such advances in cartilage regeneration get all patients back to normal faster than ever before.

It's not exactly like turning back the clock or erasing our missteps-but most patients agree that it's mighty close. We need many more podiatrists to help meet the needs of the foot sore public. If you are interested in learning more about a possible career in podiatric medicine and surgery, contact the Arizona School of Podiatric Medicine, Midwestern University, at 623-572-3450.

THE WHITE HOUSE
Office of the Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
May 5, 2014

Statement by the President on the Passing of Billy Frank, Jr.

I was saddened to learn of the passing of Billy Frank, Jr. – Chairman of the Northwest Indian Fisheries Commission and a member of the Nisqually Indian Tribe. Billy fought for treaty rights to fish the waters of the Pacific Northwest, a battle he finally won in 1974 after being arrested many times during tribal “fish-ins”. Today, thanks to his courage and determined effort, our resources are better protected, and more tribes are able to enjoy the rights preserved for them more than a century ago. Billy never stopped fighting to make sure future generations would be able to enjoy the outdoors as he did, and his passion on the issue of climate change should serve as an inspiration to us all. I extend my deepest sympathies to the Nisqually Indian Tribe, and to Billy’s family, and to his many friends who so greatly admired him.
