EXPOSED: The Shocking Carbon Footprint Of One Of America's Most Famous Celebrities

- December 05, 2012

Santa's big annual gig comes with a mega carbon footprint. Ethical Ocean imagines the potential environmental impact of delivering all those toys and offers some practical, earth-friendly solutions the big guy could take to reduce his impact. (Hint: Some of them apply to us Santa stand-ins, too.)

A CAT'S 12 DAYS OF CHRISTMAS

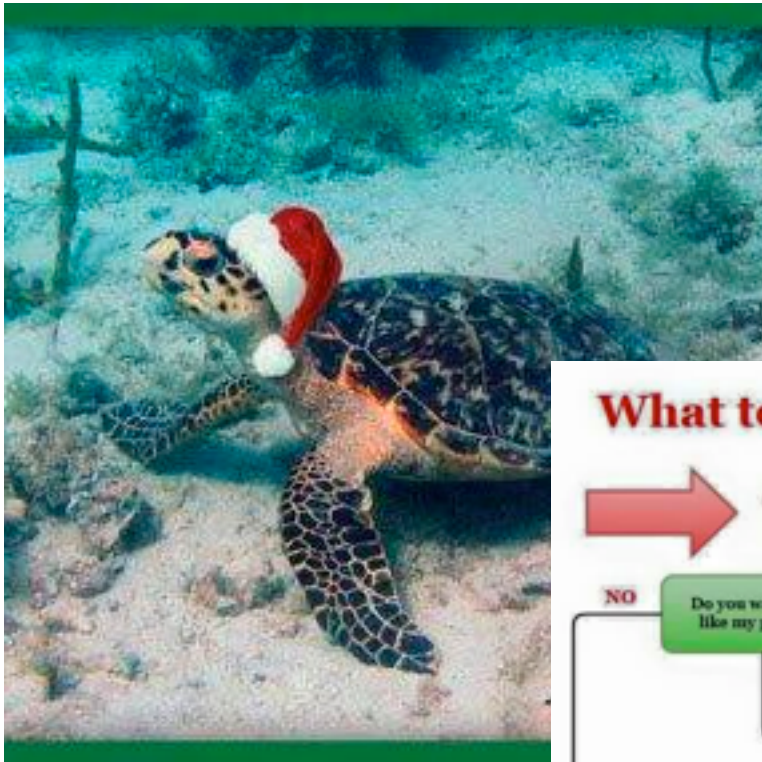

On the twelfth day of Christmas my human gave to me:

Twelve bags of catnip!
 Eleven tarter Pounce treats,
 Ten ornaments hanging,
 Nine wads of Kleenex,
 Eight peacock feathers,
 Seven stolen Q-tips,
 Six feathered balls,
 Five MILK JUG RINGS!
 Four munchy house plants,
 Three running faucets,
 Two fuzzy mousies,
 And a hamster in a plastic ball!!

DOG CHRISTMASES

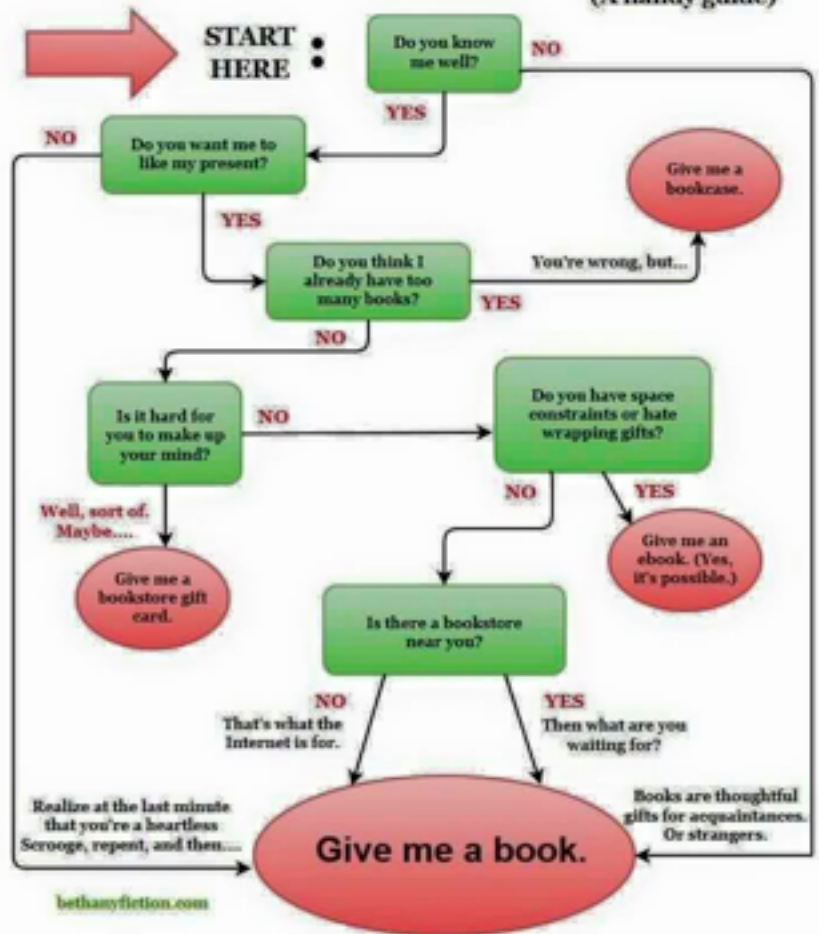

And for those of Turtle Island.....

Every December 25th, a town in Peru celebrates "Takanakuy". Men, women and children settle grudges with fistfights. Then everyone goes drinking together, ready to start the new year with a clean slate.
