“Imaginative literature does not enslave; it liberates the mind of man. Its truth is not like the canons of orthodoxy or the irrationality of prejudice and superstition. It begins as an adventure in self-discovery and ends in wisdom and humane conscience.”

National Funding

Support for Community Organizations Addressing Poverty

Catholic Campaign for Human Development

The Catholic Campaign for Human Development (CCHD), established by the Catholic bishops of the United States, is committed to supporting organizations led by low-income individuals as they work to break the cycle of poverty and improve their communities. CCHD's grant programs include the following: Community Development Grants support nonprofit organizations that nurture the participation of people living in poverty to change structures and policies that affect their lives. At least 50 percent of those benefiting from the applying organization's efforts must be people experiencing poverty. Economic Development Grants support Economic Development Institutions that include the voice of the poor and marginalized in developing new businesses that offer good jobs or develop assets that will be owned by local communities. Grants range between $25,000 and $75,000. Pre-applications for both programs may be submitted between September 1 and November 1, annually. (Organizations are encouraged to submit their pre-application prior to the November 1 deadline.) Visit the CCHD website for more information.

Health Education Projects Funded

AMA Foundation: Healthy Living Grant Program

The Healthy Living Grant Program, an initiative of the AMA Foundation, supports health education programs to develop school and community-based solutions to behavioral health challenges. In 2015, grants will be awarded in the following categories: The Youth-Focused Prescription Medication Safety category supports projects that provide awareness programs about the dangers of prescription drug abuse for at-risk children and youth ages two to 21. The Cancer Prevention Education category supports projects that focus on awareness and education for underserved populations about preventing a specific type of cancer. Funded projects in both categories must involve a partnership with a medical organization. The application deadline is September 11, 2015. Application guidelines and forms are available on the Foundation's website under "Grantseekers."

Grants Enhance Grassroots Social Movements

Jessie Smith Noyes Foundation

The Jessie Smith Noyes Foundation supports grassroots organizations and movements working to change environmental, social, economic, and political conditions to bring about a more just, equitable, and sustainable world. The Foundation's funding priorities include environmental justice, sustainable agriculture and food systems, and reproductive rights. Grants are provided throughout the United States in both rural and urban communities. (The Foundation also offers support to nonprofit organizations that advocate for sustainable practices in New York City.) The first step in the application process is to complete the funding quiz. After completing the quiz, organizations that are eligible for grant consideration will be directed to an Internet Application Form, which may be submitted throughout the year. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the funding priorities and application process.

Matching Support for Musical Instrument Purchases

Classics for Kids Foundation

The mission of the Classics for Kids Foundation is to empower young people to shape positive futures through music, build sustainable stringed instrument music programs, and provide grants for high quality instruments. The Foundation offers matching grants to K-12 schools and nonprofit organizations throughout the United States to help purchase stringed instruments. Grants will not exceed 50% of total instrument cost. Requests are reviewed quarterly; the upcoming application deadline is September 30, 2015. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the grant program.

Regional Funding

Funds for College Student Emergency Programs in Five States

Great Lakes Higher Education Guaranty Corporation: Dash Emergency Grant Program

The Great Lakes Higher Education Guaranty Corporation (Great Lakes) supports colleges and community-based organizations in Arkansas, Iowa, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin that address barriers to college success. Great Lake's Dash Emergency Grant Program helps community colleges establish, manage, and sustain student emergency funds that quickly award small grants to help keep more Federal Pell Grant recipients enrolled despite financial setbacks. Two-year public technical/community colleges, or foundations associated with those colleges, in the five targeted states are eligible to apply for grants of up to $99,000 over three years. Up to 32 colleges will be awarded grants in December 2015 to implement the Dash program over the next two and a half years. The application deadline is September 3, 2015. Visit the Great Lakes website to learn more about this program.

Grants Promote Conservation Projects in Selected U.S. States and Canadian Provinces

National Fish and Wildlife Foundation: ConocoPhillips SPIRIT of Conservation and Innovation

The ConocoPhillips SPIRIT of Conservation and Innovation program, a partnership between ConocoPhillips, the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, provides matching grants for habitat restoration, water and biodiversity conservation, and innovative conservation projects in selected U.S. states and Canadian provinces. International projects will also be considered in geographic regions near the company's operating areas. Grants will range from $50,000 to $350,000. Nonprofit organizations, educational institutions, government agencies, and Indian tribes are eligible to apply. The proposal deadline is August 20, 2015. Visit the National Fish and Wildlife Foundation website to review the Request for Proposals.

Support for Social Change Initiatives in GA, NC, and SC

Fund for Southern Communities

The Fund for Southern Communities supports nonprofit organizations working to create just and sustainable communities that are free of oppression and that embrace and celebrate all people. The Fund provides grants of $1,000 to $5,000 to progressive grassroots groups in Georgia, North Carolina, and South Carolina that address social change issues, such as workers' rights, environmental justice, economic justice, non-traditional arts and media, etc. Grants support new or existing projects, as well as the general operating needs of small organizations with budgets of $150,000 or less. The application deadline is September 1, 2015. Visit the Fund's website to download the grant application information.

Dental Health Programs in Connecticut and New Jersey Funded

Delta Dental of New Jersey Foundation

The Delta Dental of New Jersey Foundation works to promote educational projects devoted to the enhancement of dental health, as well as dental care programs designed to increase public awareness of the general benefits of good oral health. The Foundation provides grants to nonprofit organizations throughout Connecticut and New Jersey that focus on dental care for underserved populations. Currently, the Foundation's funding priorities are to support dental programs that provide access to care for children, individuals with developmental disabilities, and senior citizens. In addition, the Foundation provides support for dental education initiatives, including scholarship programs and children's programs. The Round One grant application deadline is August 10, 2015. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the grant program guidelines.

Federal Funding

Pool Safety Supported

Consumer Product Safety Commission

The Pool Safety Grant Program provides state and local governments with assistance to implement enforcement and education programs to prevent drowning and drain entrapment of children in pools and spas. The application deadline is August 19, 2015.

Pre-Disaster Mitigation Grants Provided

Department of Homeland Security

The Pre-Disaster Mitigation Grant Program provides support for hazard mitigation planning and projects to reduce overall risk to people and structures for future disaster events. The application deadline is August 28, 2015.

1. If your local Dairy Queen is closed from September through May, you may live in Montana.
2. If someone in a Home Depot store offers you assistance and they don't even work there, you may live in Montana.

3. If you've worn shorts and a jacket at the same time, you may live in Montana.
4. If you've had a lengthy telephone conversation with someone who dialed a wrong number, you may live in Montana.
5. If "vacation" means going anywhere south of Missoula for the weekend, you may live in Montana.
6. If you measure distance in hours, you may live in Montana.
7. If you know several people who have hit a deer more than once, you may live in Montana.
8. If you have switched from 'heat' to 'A/C' in the same day and back again, you may live in Montana.
9. If you can drive 75 mph through 2 feet of snow during a raging blizzard without flinching, you may live in Montana.
10. If you install security lights on your house and garage, but leave both doors unlocked, you may live in Montana.
11. If you carry jumpers in your car and your wife knows how to use them, you may live in Montana.
12. If you design your kid's Halloween costume to fit over a snowsuit, you may live in Montana.
13. If the speed limit on the highway is 55 mph -you're going 80 and everybody is passing you, you may live in Montana.
14. If driving is better in the winter because the potholes are filled with snow, you may live in Montana.
15. If you know all 4 seasons: almost winter, winter, still winter and road construction, you may live in Montana.
16. If you have more miles on your snow blower than your car, you may live in Montana.
17. If you find 10 degrees "a little chilly", you may live in Montana.
18. If you actually understand these jokes, repost this so all of your Montana friends and others can see, you definitely do live - or have lived - in Montana.
