Arizona Universities: Northern Arizona University, Arizona State University, and University of Arizona

Why Arizona? is a multi-year collaboration of archivists from the University of Arizona, Northern Arizona University and Arizona State University to support the forthcoming celebration of the Arizona Centennial in 2012. This digital library provides access to archival materials that tell us stories about how and why people came to Arizona, why they stayed, and why they left - from ancient times to the present. Through the use of archival photos, audio recordings, videos and texts--we will connect with individuals and families who chose Arizona for employment, religious freedom, ethnic communities or recreation.

Deer Valley Petroglyph Preserve

The Deer Valley Petroglyph Preserve is an archaeology museum and 47-acre Sonoran Desert preserve. It is part of Arizona State University's Center for Archaeology and Society and housed within the School of Human Evolution and Social Change; home to one of the top archaeology programs in the United States. It is the site of past archaeological investigations and features artifacts from the Center's collection, housed at its repository in Tempe, along with over 1600 petroglyphs - the largest concentration in the Phoenix area. It serves as a gateway to southwest archaeology sites and Arizona's rich cultural past.

What Is History Day?

The History Day Program is an exciting way to study history and learn about issues, ideas, people, and events that are of interest to students. History Day lets students express what they have learned through creative and original performances, media documentaries, papers, or three-dimensional exhibits. History Day provides classroom teachers with an effective vehicle for teaching not only the content of history (and other subjects, such as art, theater, and media), but the basic components of critical thinking. It helps students develop the skills to think critically, not only about school work, but about the many decisions they must confront as citizens.

The Annual Theme

Each year a broad theme is selected for the History Day contest. Topics may come from local, regional, national, or world history. Regardless of the topic chosen, the research and conclusions must relate to the annual theme.

2016: Exploration, Encounter, Exchange in History

Future Themes for National History Day include:

2017: Taking a Stand in History

Support for Digitizing Significant Collections

Council on Library and Information Resources: Digitizing Hidden Special Collections and Archives

Digitizing Hidden Special Collections and Archives, an initiative of the Council on Library and Information Resources (CLIR), is intended to help digitize collections of rare content and ensure that the full wealth of resources held by institutions of cultural heritage becomes integrated with the open Web. Through this program, CLIR aspires to support the creation of digital representations of unique content of high scholarly significance that will be discoverable and usable as elements of a coherent national collection. Grants, ranging from a minimum of $50,000 to a maximum of $250,000 in the case of a single-institution project or $500,000 for a collaborative project, will be provided to colleges and universities, research centers, museums, libraries, historical societies, cultural associations, etc. To promote broad access, careful preservation, standardization, and usability, approaches to digitization should be coordinated across institutions when feasible. Online initial proposals must be submitted by April 5, 2016. Visit the CLIR website to review the program guidelines and application process.

Cardiovascular Health Programs Funded

AstraZeneca HealthCare Foundation: Connections for Cardiovascular Health

The mission of the AstraZeneca HealthCare Foundation's program, Connections for Cardiovascular Health, is to improve cardiovascular health within the United States. Through the program, grants of $150,000 to $180,000 are awarded to U.S.-based nonprofit organizations for initiatives that address patient cardiovascular health issues, work to address unmet needs related to cardiovascular health in the community, respond to the urgency around cardiovascular health issues, and improve the lives of patients and non-professional caregivers in connection with the services provided. In addition, initiatives should be focused on measurable results and the recipient organizations must be able to demonstrate sustainability of their programs after the Foundation grant funds are expended. Applications will be accepted from February 1 through February 25, 2016, at 5 pm ET. Visit the Foundation's website to review the funding guidelines.

Grants Promote International Theatre Collaborations

Theatre Communications Group: Global Connections

The Global Connections program, administered by Theatre Communications Group (TCG), is dedicated to building bridges between U.S. theatre professionals and their counterparts abroad, identifying theatre professionals who will further the growth of the field, and creating opportunities for the U.S. theatre field to engage in international conversations. Grants are provided to nonprofit organizations and individual artists through the following two initiatives: Global Connections: On the Road will award grants of up to $5,000 to foster new relationships with international colleagues that will inspire each other's work and aesthetics by creating opportunities for cultural exchange. Global Connections: In the Lab will award grants of $10,000 to further pre-existing international collaborations by supporting residencies that either advance the research and development of a theatre piece or explore elements leading up to a full production. The application deadline for Global Connections Round 5/Cycle B is March 9, 2016. Application guidelines are available on the TCG website.

Projects Assisting People Living with Spinal Cord Injury Supported

Craig H. Neilsen Foundation: Quality of Life Program

The mission of the Craig H. Neilsen Foundation is to improve the quality of life for those living with spinal cord injury and to support scientific exploration for effective therapies and treatments leading to a cure. The Foundation's Quality of Life Program supports nonprofit organizations that offer projects designed to enhance the lives of people living with a spinal cord injury throughout the United States. Areas of interest include assistive technology, education, employment, independent living, rehabilitation, and sports and recreation. Letters of intent are due February 16, 2016; invited grant applications must be submitted by April 22, 2016. Visit the Foundation's website to download the application guide.

Regional Funding

Funds for Environmentally Sustainable Initiatives in the Pacific Northwest

Bullitt Foundation

The mission of the Bullitt Foundation is to safeguard the natural environment by promoting responsible human activities and sustainable communities in the Pacific Northwest, including Washington, Oregon, Idaho, western Montana, coastal Alaska from Cook Inlet to the Canadian border, and British Columbia. The Foundation's current focus is on the following programs: The Urban Ecology program strives to advance policies to create affordable, diverse, healthy, and environmentally beneficial communities. The Ecosystem Services program aims to protect the ability of nature to sustain healthy urban communities and a sound economy. The Energy, Industry, and Technology program promotes policies and actions to harness the entrepreneurial power of business to create competitive industries built on ecological principles and sustainable technologies. The Leadership and Civic Engagement program works to nurture leadership, strengthen organizations, and broaden the coalition to create a more dynamic constituency for environmental responsibility. The upcoming deadline for proposal inquiry forms is March 15, 2016. Visit the Foundation's website for detailed information about each of the grantmaking programs.

Grants Address Community Health Issues in Michigan

Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan Foundation: Community Health Matching Program

The Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan Foundation is dedicated to improving the health of Michigan residents through the support of research and innovative programs. The Foundation's Community Health Matching Program supports nonprofit community organizations throughout the state that develop, use, and evaluate new ways to solve community health problems. Matching grants of up to $25,000 are available for programs that help increase access to healthcare, address critical public health issues, improve the quality of care, or enhance efficiency. Requests are accepted throughout the year; however, they should be submitted at least five months before the funds are needed. Visit the Foundation's website to download the program's brochure and application guidelines.

Support for Social Change Organizations in Hawaii

Hawaii People's Fund

The Hawaii People's Fund provides support to progressive grassroots social change organizations working throughout the state. Grants are provided to organizations committed to a more equitable distribution of power, resources, and wealth in Hawaii. The Fund's broad grant categories include the following: cultural activism, human and civil rights, environmental and economic justice, movement building, political organizing, grassroots leadership, youth organizing, indigenous rights, workers' rights, reproductive justice, and peace and international solidarity. Grants of up to $7,500 are provided for existing projects as well as startup projects. The upcoming application deadline is March 1, 2016. Visit the Fund's website to review the funding guidelines and application instructions.

Conservation Treatment for New York State Collections Funded

Greater Hudson Heritage Network: Conservation Treatment Grant Program

The Greater Hudson Heritage Network (GHHN) is dedicated to advancing the preservation and interpretation of New York State's historical, ethnic, and cultural heritages. GHHN's Conservation Treatment Grant Program provides support for treatment procedures by professional conservators to aid in stabilizing and preserving objects in collections of museums as well as historical and cultural organizations throughout the state. Grants of up to $7,500 are provided to nonprofit museums, historical organizations, and other cultural institutions that own, care for, and exhibit collections to the public. The focus is on institutions lacking in-house conservation staff with expertise in the area for which support is requested. The application deadline is March 1, 2016. Visit the GHHN website to learn more about the program.

RURAL GATEWAY PEER-TO-PEER CONFERENCE CALL

U.S. Department of Justice
Coordinated Tribal Assistance
Solicitation Funding Opportunity:

A Discussion of Best Practices

Date: February 9, 2016 Time: 2:00 p.m. EST

The Office of Rural Housing and Economic Development (ORHED) invites you to take part in our next Peer-to-Peer conference call. Scheduled for February 9, 2016, this call will offer participants the opportunity to learn about available activities through the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ).

The U.S. Department of Justice's mission is to enforce the law and defend the interests of the United States according to the law; to ensure public safety against threats foreign and domestic; to provide federal leadership in preventing and controlling crime; to seek just punishment for those guilty of unlawful behavior; and to ensure fair and impartial administration of justice for all Americans.

The U.S. Department of Justice announced the opening of the grant solicitation period for comprehensive funding to American Indian and Alaska Native tribal governments and tribal consortia to support public safety, victim services and crime prevention improvements.

For the FY 2016 Coordinated Tribal Assistance Solicitation (CTAS), a tribe or tribal consortium will submit a single application and select from any or all of the nine competitive grant programs referred to as "purpose areas." This approach allows the department's grant-making components to consider the totality of a tribal nation's overall public safety needs.

The nine purpose areas (PA) are:

- PA1 - Public Safety and Community Policing (COPS)
- PA2 - Comprehensive Tribal Justice Systems Strategic Planning (BJA)
- PA3 - Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse (BJA)
- PA4 - Corrections and Correctional Alternatives (BJA)
- PA5 - Violence Against Women Tribal Governments Program (OVW)
- PA6 - Children's Justice Act Partnerships for Indian Communities (OVC)
- PA7 - Comprehensive Tribal Victim Assistance Program (OVC)
- PA8 - Juvenile Healing to Wellness Courts (OJJDP)

- PA9 - Tribal Youth Program (OJJDP)

Leaders of the U.S. Department of Justice will share their knowledge of successfully implementing activities that have expanded and created opportunities for those living in tribal communities. Participants will have the opportunity to ask questions about best practices and establish contacts for future reference.

Join HUD's Office of Rural Housing and Economic Development (ORHED) and the U.S. Department of Justice staff as we engage tribal community leaders in this open forum on opportunities available through DOJ. Speakers will include:

- Valerie G. Piper, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Economic Development, Community Planning and Development, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development;
- Jackie L. Williams, Ph.D., Moderator, Director, Office of Rural Housing and Economic Development, Community Planning and Development, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development;
- Patricia Thackston, Facilitator, Policy Advisor, PA2-Comprehensive Tribal Justice Systems Strategic Planning (BJA) and PA3-Justice Systems and Alcohol and Substance Abuse (BJA), U.S. Department of Justice;
- Anne Beamon, Tribal Advisor, PA1 - Public Safety and Community Policing (COPS), U.S. Department of Justice;
- Julius Dupree, Policy Advisor, PA4-Corrections and Correctional Alternatives (BJA), U.S. Department of Justice;
- Lorraine Edmo, Deputy Director for Tribal, PA5-Violence Against Women Tribal Governments Program (OVW), U.S. Department of Justice;
- Kimberly Woodward, PA6- Sr. Tribal Affairs Specialist, Children's Justice Act Partnerships for Indian Communities (OVC) and PA7- Comprehensive Tribal Victim Assistance Program (OVC), U.S. Department of Justice;
- James Antal, Acting Associate Administrator, PA8-Juvenile Healing to Wellness Courts (OJJDP) and PA9-Tribal Youth Programs (OJJDP), U.S. Department of Justice;

Topics to be discussed

- Funding and technical assistance opportunities at the U.S. Department of Justice
- Public and Private sources of funding to carry out projects
- Best practices and lessons-learned

Format of the call

Call-in instructions and additional materials will be emailed to participants on February 5, 2016. The 60 minute call will include presentations and a Q&A session.

Please RSVP by email to rhed@hud.gov no later than close of business on February 5, 2016. Please include your name and organization.

If you have any questions, please call 1-877-RURAL-26 (1-877-787-2526).
