Oregon "Militia" Says Feds Stole Their Land – Turns Out It Was Stolen from Paiute Tribe

The militiamen probably don't see the irony in claiming that the feds stole their land.

I'm for returning land to rightful stewards which would be Indigenous people. Incidentally despite what we Capitalists might like to think, land can only be leased. Only the Mother Earth truly "owns" it, although we humans have it in our power to steward it lovingly or to destroy it.

Activists in Pacific Northwest Face Off Against Largest Oil-By-Rail Terminal in North America

Martha Baskin, Truthout: In December, Congress lifted the 40-year ban on exporting US crude oil. Now, a Pacific Northwest coalition of Indigenous groups, environmentalists and others is facing off against a proposed oil-by-rail terminal, which would be the largest in North America and contribute to further carbon emissions, advocates say.
