How Top Food Companies Fail to Protect Environmental Activists in Supply Chains

Benjamin Dangel, Toward Freedom: A recent investigation by the anti-poverty advocacy organization Oxfam reveals how the world's top 10 food and beverage companies are failing to protect environmental and human rights defenders caught in the companies' supply chains. Across the world, from Indonesia to Honduras, environmental defenders are facing down multinational corporations and the devastating impacts of their industries on local communities, rivers, forests and Indigenous ways of life. Promise College Scholarship for Nevada High School Graduates

The Nevada Promise Scholarship; an exciting new financial aid opportunity that could help you pay for college, is made possible by recent legislation that provides funding to give all Nevada high school graduates the chance to go to college, regardless of other available aid. For those who qualify, this scholarship will pay any remaining tuition and mandatory fees at a Nevada community college after Pell Grant, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant, Governor Guinn Millennium Scholarship or Silver State Opportunity Grant awards are applied.

To be eligible for the Nevada Promise Scholarship, you must complete the entire program. Full program requirements can be found at www.csn.edu/promise, but a few key criteria are listed below. To be eligible, you must:

- Be an official resident of Nevada, 20 years of age or younger at graduation and receive a public/private high school diploma, high school equivalency diploma or equivalent recognized document.
- Apply for the scholarship at www.csn.edu/promise by Oct. 31, 2017.

- Apply for admission to CSN at www.csn.edu/apply. Once admitted and subsequently enrolled, you will need to register for and maintain at least 12 college credits per semester.
- Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) online at www.fafsa.gov by Apr. 1, 2018. The FAFSA window opens Oct. 1, 2017.
- Attend a mandatory information workshop by Dec. 31, 2017.
- Meet with your assigned mentor by April 30, 2018. Your mentor is investing in your future and is there to provide guidance through the college admission process and help ensure your success.
- Complete at least 20 hours of community service by April 30, 2018. Once you have received the Nevada Promise Scholarship, 20 additional hours of community service must be completed during each year you attend the College of Southern Nevada. Please note that that these requirements must be completed or the scholarship will be revoked. If you have any questions, please visit www.csn.edu/promise or make an appointment with your high school counselor.

Statue's Stolen Foot Reflects Divisions Over Symbols of Conquest

By SIMON ROMERO

A conquistador's statue in New Mexico that was vandalized 20 years ago remains a divisive symbol, one of a number of monuments drawing protests from Native Americans.

The animals were playing hand game. Coyote was losing. All were in the house playing except little lizard, who was on top of the house. He had sinew in his belt for sewing. He was singing. This annoyed coyote, for he was losing. Coyote would throw hot coals on lizard as to say, "shut up, you are making me lose." Lizard didn't care much for his skin, but took good care of his thread. He would straighten out his thread and would sing again. One of the players told coyote that they should go and see, maybe lizard knew something...
