Scientists from the University of Vienna recently published the genome sequence for pearl millet, a cereal crop which could help small-scale farmers with minimal irrigation survive drought. Pearl millet was found to be harvestable under intense heat and drought, compared to rice, maize, and wheat, which stopped producing grains under similar conditions. Science Daily

National Funding

Support for Children's Oral Health Programs

Healthy Smiles, Healthy Children, The Foundation of the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry

Healthy Smiles, Healthy Children, The Foundation of the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry is committed to improving the quality of pediatric oral health in the United States. Healthy Smiles, Healthy Children Grants support dentist-led, community-based initiatives throughout the country that provide dental care and ultimately serve as a Dental Home to underserved/limited access children. Special consideration will be given to initiatives that support the age-one dental visit, emphasize care to patients up to age five, provide care to special needs patients, address the needs of specific underserved demographic groups, and incorporate systemic health, i.e., diabetes, cancer, etc. Single-year grants of up to $20,000 are provided. Online proposals must be submitted by December 15, 2017. Visit the Foundation's website to review the 2018-19 grant guidelines.

Conservation of 20th Century Architecture Worldwide Funded

Getty Foundation: Keeping It Modern Planning and Implementation Grants

The Getty Foundation is offering Planning and Implementation Grants to support the conservation of modern architecture as part of its Keeping It Modern initiative. Planning grants are available for the following activities: research and planning projects for significant 20th century buildings that involve practitioners from multiple disciplines and may include research of historical documentation; research on the historic fabric of the building; physical analysis and testing of original materials used in construction; the development and testing of technical solutions; and preparation of technical drawings, budget estimates, and schedules of work. Implementation grants support exceptional projects related to internationally recognized buildings that advance the conservation of modern architecture in significant ways and have the potential to serve as models for the conservation of other 20th century buildings. Nonprofit or charitable organizations from around the world are eligible to apply. Letters of inquiry are due December 1, 2017; invited proposals must be submitted by March 1, 2018. Visit the Foundation's website to review the grant guidelines.

Grants Encourage Empathy Through Youth Projects

Youth Service America: BE FEARLESS BE KIND Grants

Youth Service America (YSA) is partnering with Hasbro's signature philanthropic initiative, BE FEARLESS BE KIND, to encourage young people to stand up for others, include everyone, and take action when they see a problem. BE FEARLESS BE KIND Grants give young people an opportunity to put their empathy, passion, and creativity into action as they help make the world a better place. Grants of $500, $1,000, or $2,000 will be provided to nonprofit organizations and K-12 schools throughout the United States to support youth-led community projects that take place through December 15, 2017. These projects should address meaningful local and global issues through Awareness, Service, Advocacy, and Philanthropy (ASAP). Applications will be accepted and grants awarded on a rolling basis until October 31, 2017. Visit the YSA website to learn more about the application process.

Environmental Marketing Materials Supported

Temper of the Times Foundation

Temper of the Times Foundation promotes the use of standard marketing concepts to increase awareness about environmental issues. Recognizing that organizations working to protect the environment often have limited access to paid media, the Foundation provides funds to underwrite advertising designed to promote the conservation and restoration of native wildlife, plants, and ecosystems in the United States. Grants ranging from $5,000 to $15,000 may be used to fund the production of print, radio, or television ads; to pay for advertising space or airtime; or to produce or distribute pamphlets, books, videos, or press packets. The application deadline is December 15, 2017. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the application process.

Matching Funds for Public Lands Friends Groups in New York State

Parks & Trails New York: Park and Trail Partnership Program

Parks & Trails New York (PTNY) is dedicated to improving health, the economy, and quality of life through the use and enjoyment of green space across New York State. PTNY's Park and Trail Partnership Program provides matching grants to nonprofit Friends organizations that support New York State parks, trails, public lands, and state historic sites. The following four types of grants are available: Capacity and Organizational Effectiveness Grants of up to $35,000; Step-Up Grants of up to $7,500; Professional Development Grants of up to $75,000; and Stewardship and Public Access Capacity Grants of up to $50,000. The application deadline is December 8, 2017.

(Professional Development Grants require the submission of a letter of inquiry by October 11, 2017.) Visit the PTNY website to learn more about the grant categories and download the Request for Applications.

Grants Promote High School Completion in Ten States

GradNation Acceleration Grant

The GradNation campaign, an initiative of America's Promise Alliance, is dedicated to raising the national high school graduation rate to 90 percent by 2020 and putting millions more young people on the path to adult success. The GradNation Acceleration Grant will support existing state- and community-level efforts focused on accelerating progress for more young people to attain high school graduation and post-secondary success. Organizations in the following ten states are eligible to apply: California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Michigan, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oregon, Pennsylvania, and Washington. Two state organizations and three community organizations will receive $250,000 and $100,000, respectively, over the two-year grant period. The application deadline is November 8, 2017. Visit the GradNation website to review the funding guidelines and submit an online application.

Support for Youth Education Programs in the Washington DC Area

Jack Kent Cooke Foundation: Good Neighbor Grants

The Good Neighbor Grants program, an initiative of the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation, seeks to identify and strengthen ties with youth-serving nonprofit organizations in the metropolitan Washington, DC, region, including the surrounding areas in Maryland and northern Virginia, that are helping students with significant financial need reach their full potential through education. Applying organizations should focus on K-12 education, college access and completion, or visual and performing arts education. Examples of eligible programs include school year and summer enrichment opportunities, college access programs, arts education, service learning, STEM programs, innovative programs that bridge education and technology, and internship programs. One-time grants of between $10,000 and $35,000 will be provided. The application deadline is November 1, 2017. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the Good Neighbor Grants Program.

Beautification Projects in South Carolina Funded

PalmettoPride: Community Pride Grant Program

PalmettoPride, a nonprofit organization in partnership with state agencies, concerned citizens, corporate sponsors, and community and civic organizations, is committed to the eradication of litter and the promotion of beautification throughout South Carolina. PalmettoPride's Community Pride Grant Program provides support to organizations that are working to create successful community anti-litter programs and beautification activities in the state. Neighborhood/homeowners associations, community groups, and churches may apply for grants of up to $2,500; colleges and universities are eligible for grants of up to $5,000; and the maximum grant amount for town, city, county, and state government agencies is $10,000. The application cycle will open on October 1 and applications will be due November 15, 2017. Visit the PalmettoPride website to learn more about the program.

Making It Stick – A Guide to Embedding Evaluation

If carrying out an evaluation seems like a daunting task, we recommend reading the report entitled “Making It Stick – A Guide to Embedding Evaluation.” This report is a guide for people who have a role in making sure that evaluation is included in everyday practice within an organization. It shows how to get staff, volunteers, and trustees to embed evaluation into an organization's day-to-day work.

State-by-State Estimates of Changes in Federal Spending on Health Care Under the Graham-Cassidy Bill

The Senate is preparing to vote next week on the Graham-Cassidy proposal to repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act and to cap the Medicaid program. A new state-by-state Kaiser Family Foundation analysis finds that the major financing changes in the bill would reduce federal spending by $160 billion over the 2020-2026 period. WOMEN'S HEALTH POLICY

Five Ways the Graham-Cassidy Proposal Would Affect Women

Because of the dramatic changes that the Graham-Cassidy proposal could make in health care financing and insurance coverage, the bill would have a direct impact on the availability and scope of coverage for millions of women with private insurance and Medicaid. (Fact Sheet)

Police Militarization Is a Threat to Tribal Sovereignty

Ruth Hopkins, Indian Country Today: The Trump administration, along with Attorney General Jeff Sessions, is claiming that militarizing police will "help state, local and tribal law enforcement better protect public safety and reduce crime." However, the clashes between Indigenous people and police at Standing Rock show that militarization is a threat to tribal sovereignty. Read the Article

For a Tribe With a Tradition of Sharing, Food Sovereignty Is Complicated Economics

Kayla Gahagan, YES! Magazine: Food sovereignty is about providing initiatives that give tribal members access to healthier food. But getting these food projects off the ground has been an uphill battle. One of the greatest hurdles? South Dakota's Sisseton Wahpeton Oyate tribal members would rather share their food than sell it. Read the Article
