RED SEA: Archaeologists Discover Remains Of Egyptian Army From The Biblical Exodus

The discovery of the remains of a large Egyptian army at the bottom of the Gulf of Suez, 1.5 km offshore from the modern city of Ras Gharib, has been announced this morning by Egypt's Antiquities Ministry. The team of underwater archaeologists was in search of ancient shipwrecks and artifacts from...

Stop tar sands & support Indigenous rights

Three days ago, Minnesota officials voted to move ahead with their decision on the Line 3 pipeline without assessing the Indigenous lands and sacred sites that would be impacted. But there's still one more chance for them to reassess.

Line 3 is one of three proposed major tar sands pipelines that, if built, would violate Indigenous rights and send our climate past a tipping point. We need to stop these pipelines and keep climate-killing tar sands in the ground.

Speak out against the Line 3 pipeline – submit a public comment to the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission urging them to reject this project before the period closes this Tuesday, February 27th. (Sorry, rc'd 2.27 but you can continue to watch this situation)

This is the last opportunity for the public to weigh in on Line 3 before the Minnesota PUC decides on the permits this June.

The Commissioners need to know that the world is watching this decision and the more people who submit comments, the more pressure we can generate. Comments will only be accepted until Tuesday -- so we need to act now.

Send your comment now urging the Commission to protect our climate and communities, and reject the Line 3 pipeline.

While we still hope to force the Commission to include the tribal survey, this fight is far from over. Even without the survey, the PUC has plenty of reasons to reject this pipeline – it's a catastrophe for Indigenous rights, clean water, and the climate and should not be built.

This fight is bigger than just Line 3 – every pipeline and fossil fuel project we resist sends the message that we won't let this dirty industry harm our communities or our climate. We need a just and equitable transition to a sustainable world, and we need it now.

During these final few months before the PUC commissioners vote on the project, we must keep pushing and leave nothing on the table. Submit your comment now.

Together, all of us united, will stop this pipeline and every other pipeline that threatens our climate and communities.

Thanks for adding your voice, Mysti Babineau, MN350

New “Americans” Exhibit Reveals Indians Are Everywhere

American Indian images, names, and stories infuse American history and contemporary life.

The images are everywhere, from the Land O'Lakes butter maiden to the Cleveland Indians' mascot, and from classic Westerns and cartoons to episodes of Seinfeld and South Park. American Indian names are everywhere too, from state, city, and street names to the Tomahawk missile. And the familiar historical events of Pocahontas's life, the Trail of Tears, and the Battle of Little Bighorn remain popular reference points in everyday conversations.

Perhaps Benjamin Franklin put it best when he said, "We'll know the worth of water when the well runs dry."

A 1st grade school teacher had twenty-six students in her class. She presented each child in her classroom the 1st half of a well-known proverb and asked them to come up with the remainder of the proverb. It's hard to believe these were actually done by first graders.

1.	Don't change horses	until they stop running.
2.	Strike while the	bug is close.
3.	It's always darkest before	Daylight Saving Time.
4.	Never underestimate the power of	termites.
5.	You can lead a horse to water but	how?
6.	Don't bite the hand that	looks dirty.
7.	No news is	impossible.
8.	A miss is as good as a	Mr.
9.	You can't teach an old dog new	math.
10.	If you lie down with dogs, you'll	stink in the morning.
11.	Love all, trust	me.
12.	The pen is mightier than the	pigs.
13.	An idle mind is	the best way to relax.
14.	Where there's smoke there's	pollution.
15.	Happy the bride who	gets all the presents.
16.	A penny saved is	not much.
17.	Two's company, three's	the Musketeers.
18.	Don't put off till tomorrow what	you put on to go to bed.
19.	Laugh and the whole world laughs with you, cry and	you have to blow your nose.
20.	There are none so blind as	Stevie Wonder.
21.	Children should be seen and not	spanked or grounded.
22.	If at first you don't succeed	get new batteries.
23.	You get out of something only what you	see in the picture on the box.
24.	When the blind lead the blind	get out of the way.
25.	A bird in the hand	is going to poop on you.
And the WINNER and last one!
26.	Better late than	pregnant.

Wes Studi to Present at 90th Oscars Ceremony

I'm usually a channel flipper when awards shows are on, checking in every now and then but not staying too tuned in. Well, the Oscars have just recently announced some more presenters at this year's awards show and Wes Studi was one of them! Now I have a reason to really watch.

From their press

release:

"Studi most recently starred in "Hostiles" (2017). His starring credits also include the Oscar-winning films "Avatar" (2009), "The Last of the Mohicans" (1992) and "Dances with Wolves" (1990). Additionally, he appeared in the Oscar-nominated films "The New World" (2005) and "Geronimo: An American Legend" (1993). He will next appear in "A Dog's Way Home."

Hosted by Jimmy Kimmel, the Oscars will air live on Sunday, March 4, on the ABC Television Network. Will you be tuning in? READ MORE

Nevada Magazine photo needs May/June 2018 issue

Submission Deadline: Friday, March 16

Important: In order to be considered for publication, you must include your name, address, phone number**

An important clarification for photo alerts and submissions:

Photo alerts do not represent a commission of your services. Under no circumstance is anyone who does not work for Nevada Magazine allowed to claim that they are “shooting for Nevada Magazine.” You may not arrange photo shoots, attempt to gain special access, or approach any restricted areas, using that claim. This is a legal matter involving liabilities issues.

Reno Sesquicentennial - On May 9, Reno turns 150! Send us your Reno shots.

The Founding of Reno - If you are the owner of any historical shots of Reno, we'd love to see them. Examples include the Riverside Loft and Virginia Street Bridge.

Nevada State Railroad Museum - This Carson City locomotive museum intrigues all ages. We're looking for photos of this state treasure, and not just the trains, but the exhibits.

Kerouac's - Kerouac's restaurant in Baker combines vintage decor and comfort food. We're looking for exterior, interior, food, and general atmosphere shots.

Ely Air Races - Because this is the inaugural event, we're looking for shots of F-1 aircraft from different air shows (Reno Air Races or other). In addition, we're looking for photos of Yelland Field in Ely and general Ely shots that would go well with an aviation story.

Scenic Spring Images - Generally, we will consider great seasonal/timely photos for the cover and our Visions department.

Spring Events - Any images that capture the spirit of a popular May/June celebration in Nevada are desired.

Always get permission to photograph on private property. If you just want publication and photo credit (no pay), please notify us when you submit your images.

Editor's Note: If you can, try and get people enjoying Nevada in your photos. Remember, people engaging in activities adds a nice touch.

Visions

Captivating images from your collection could be used in this department. Think seasonal and timely to the issue.
