Helen Fillmore and Sherry Rupert named to ballot for 20 Most Powerful Women
You may vote through today at <http://nnbw.secondstreetapp.com/20-Most-Powerful-Women/gallery>

Helen Fillmore. Helen has been at the forefront of the natural resources discussion in Nevada since she was a child. Fighting against nuclear power and Yucca Mountain and now a champion ...

Sherry Rupert ___Rupert's leadership of American Indian Alaska Native Tourism Association (AIANTA) and as the executive director of the State of Nevada Indian Commission has been spectacular! She is an American Indian of Paiute and Washoe heritage and a leading voice in American Indian issues in the state._

Roosevelt would be ashamed

Friend -- this is outrageous.

Last week, I demanded that Interior Secretary Ryan Zinke answer for his proposal to nearly triple fees at our most treasured national parks.

His response? "When you give discounted or free passes to elderly, fourth graders, veterans, disabled, and you do it by the carload, there's not a whole lot of people who actually pay at our front door."

Hold on. Ryan Zinke and Donald Trump have called for cuts in the overall budget of the National Park Service. Zinke himself spent hundreds of thousands of dollars on wasteful, taxpayer-funded travel. And now, he has the gall to blame our parks' problems on the elderly, veterans, and the disabled? That's downright absurd.

Tell Ryan Zinke: We need real outdoor leadership -- not fee hikes at our national parks. Sign on to oppose park fee hikes today! SIGN ON »

We are in an era of unprecedented attacks on our public lands and outdoor spaces. Far from being the conservation champion that he claimed to be, Ryan Zinke has presided over the largest rollback of our public lands in history. Teddy Roosevelt would be ashamed.

Millions of people from across the country enjoy our national parks every year. And they enjoy the national monuments -- like Bears Ears -- that Zinke and Donald Trump are putting on the chopping block.

We need to show Zinke that we're not letting this go. He can't pay for wasteful taxpayer-funded travel, cut our public lands, and raise fees at our national parks without a fight.

Join me in calling out Ryan Zinke's fee hikes today! We need real outdoor leadership NOW.

Thank you, Maria Cantwell, U.S. Senator (WA)

Friday fun:

— Humans, Mr. Harari warned, “have created such a complicated world that we’re no longer able to make sense of what is happening.” And “We’re in an unprecedented situation in history in the sense that nobody knows what the basics about how the world will look like in 20 or 30 years. Not just the basics of geopolitics but what the job market would look like, what kind of skills people will need, what family structures will look like, what gender relations will look like. This means that for the first time in history we have no idea what to teach in schools.” (NYT)

— Now watch me whip whip, watch me nae nae. And now the hardest: watch me do the asian squat. Actually don’t, but try it yourself. It’s not easy. “This ability that comes so naturally to cavemen and to babies has been lost to many Western toilet sitters—and it’s not so easy to get it back.” (Atlantic)
