The process and intent of Ms. Siskind is to encourage readers to make lists of the changes they observe since the last inauguration. This is particularly relevant for tribes as so many policies and laws are being abrogate and the Administration seems to be seeking status of the early 50's. Since so many were not born/adult at that time, they lack knowledge of the evolution of those situations. So making a list of what is changing around them would give direction to what history/legislation/etc they need to know. Start your lists!

National Funding

Support for Services Assisting People with Dementia

Brookdale National Group Respite Program

The Brookdale Foundation Group works to advance the fields of geriatrics and gerontology and to improve the lives of senior citizens. The Brookdale National Group Respite Program awards seed grants to service providers that plan to offer new, dementia-specific Group Respite or specialized Early Memory Loss (EML) programming to participants, along with support to caregivers, in order to help individuals remain in their communities. All funded programs must provide a day program for people affected by Alzheimer's disease or other dementia, which is limited to those who are cognitively impaired. Grants of $10,000 will be provided in year one, renewable for $5,000 for the second year, based on evaluation of first year's activities and potential for future continuity of the program. The application deadline is June 27, 2018. Visit the Brookdale Foundation Group's website to download the guidelines and application form.

Awards for Innovative Justice Programs

Foundation for Improvement of Justice

The Foundation for Improvement of Justice works to enhance local, state, and federal systems of justice by rewarding the accomplishments of innovative programs throughout the United States. Each year, awards of $10,000 are provided to up to seven nominees for justice-related programs that have proven to be effective and can serve as models for others. The award categories include the following: legal reform, crime prevention, child protection, speeding the process, effecting restitution, crime victims' rights, alternative sentencing, reducing recidivism, lowering the cost, and other significant efforts. The program is open to all individuals, programs, and organizations within the United States. The nomination deadline is May 15, 2018. Visit the Foundation's website for nomination guidelines.

Mentoring Programs for Women with Gynecologic Cancer Funded

Ovarian Cancer Research Fund Alliance: Woman to Woman

Woman to Woman, a program of the Ovarian Cancer Research Fund Alliance (OCRFA), seeks to improve the quality of care for gynecologic cancer patients by strengthening coping capacities through a patient-to-patient support model. Woman to Woman trains mentors, themselves survivors of gynecologic cancers, to provide emotional support and mentoring through all phases of treatment, recurrence, and recovery. Another key component of Woman to Woman is a patient fund, which offers modest financial assistance to women undergoing treatment and their families. Each grant recipient will receive a one-year grant of either $60,000 for a hospital-based program or $30,000 for a community-based organization. The grant is intended to cover the cost of a part-time Program Coordinator's salary, program costs, and the patient fund. Hospitals and community-based, nonprofit organizations that serve women with gynecologic cancers are eligible to apply. The application deadline is May 18, 2018. Visit the OCRFA website to download the application guidelines.

Grants Promote Organic Agriculture Projects in K-8 Schools

California Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom: Look at Agriculture... Organically! Grants

The Look at Agriculture... Organically! Grants, offered by the California Foundation for Agriculture in the Classroom, are designed to creatively enhance the understanding of organic agriculture for kindergarten through eighth grade students throughout the United States. Grants of up to $1,000 are provided to educators nationwide to support the integration of organic agriculture into regular classroom instruction. A significant percentage of grant funding will go to teachers in school districts with 50 percent or more students enrolled in the free and reduced lunch program. The application deadline is May 15, 2018. Visit the Foundation's website to submit an online application.

Technology Education Programs for Teens in Company Communities Supported

Best Buy Community Grants Program

The Best Buy Community Grants Program provides support to community-based organizations that are located within 25 miles of a Best Buy facility. Grants focus on out-of-school time programs that create access to technology education and tools that teens will need to be successful in their future schooling and careers. Programs should include hands-on learning opportunities and engage the youth, ages 13-18, in experimenting and interacting with the latest technologies to build 21st century skills. Examples of program activities include computer programming, website design, audio production, robotics, and gaming and mobile app development. The average grant amount is $5,000; grants will not exceed $10,000. Public and nonprofit community-based organizations (e.g., community centers, schools, and libraries) are eligible to apply. Online proposals may be submitted between May 1 and May 31, 2018. Visit the Best Buy website to review the program guidelines and take the eligibility quiz.

General Operating Funds for Organizations in the Upper Midwest

Bush Foundation: Ecosystem Grants

The Bush Foundation invests in great ideas and the people who power them in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, and 23 Native Nations. The Foundation's Ecosystem Grants provide general operating support to help sustain organizations that create unique and significant value for the Foundation's grantees, Fellows, and other organizations. The focus is on organizations that provide critical data and analysis, spread great ideas and build capacity, advance public awareness and policy, and build and support leadership networks. Eligible organizations should advance the goal of a Foundation program or strategic initiative. Organizations may apply to receive as much as $200,000 over two years in general operating support. Nonprofit organizations and government agencies are eligible to apply. There will be a few Ecosystem Grants available to new applicants in 2018. Organizations that meet the selection criteria and eligibility may apply between April 24 and May 24, 2018. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the Ecosystem Grants opportunity.

Grants Enhance Quality of Life for Oklahomans

Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation

The Samuel Roberts Noble Foundation's grant program primarily provides support to nonprofit organizations and higher education institutions in Oklahoma. The focus is on organizations that cultivate good health, support education, and build stronger communities. Before a formal grant application will be sent to the requesting organization, the organization must submit a letter of inquiry. The Foundation will accept letters of inquiry through June 1, 2018. Visit the Foundation's website for more information.

Efforts to Build Strong Illinois Communities Supported
Grand Victoria Foundation: Core Grants Program

The Grand Victoria Foundation invests in building strong communities in Illinois by strengthening early education opportunities for young children, protecting natural lands and waterways, and promoting economic vitality through robust employment development. The Foundation's Core Grants Program provides support to nonprofit organizations that address the following categories: Employment, Land and Water Conservation, and Early Childhood Education. Statewide organizations, regional organizations that focus on the Chicago metropolitan area, as well as organizations that focus on suburban Chicago counties are eligible to apply. The 2018 deadlines for letters of inquiry are May 4 and October 5. Visit the Foundation's website to learn more about the Core Grants Program.

Today's encore selection -- from A Curious Mind by Brian Grazer and Charles Fishman.
The first book of Theodor Seuss Geisel, better known to us as Dr. Seuss, was rejected by 27 publishers before it was finally accepted by Vanguard Press:

"Being determined in the face of obstacles is vital. Theodor Geisel, Dr. Seuss, is a great example of that himself. Many of his forty-four books remain wild bestsellers. In 2013, Green Eggs and Ham sold more than 700,000 copies in the United States (more than Goodnight Moon); The Cat in the Hat sold more than 500,000 copies, as did Oh, the Places You'll Go! and One Fish Two Fish Red Fish Blue Fish. And five more Dr. Seuss books each sold more than 250,000 copies. That's eight books, with total sales of more than 3.5 million copies, in one year (another eight Seuss titles sold 100,000 copies or more). Theodor Geisel is selling 11,000 Dr. Seuss books every day of the year, in the United States alone, twenty-four years after he died. He has sold 600 million books worldwide since his first book, And to Think That I Saw It on Mulberry Street, was published in 1937. And as inevitable as Dr. Seuss's appeal seems now, Mulberry Street was rejected by twenty-seven publishers before being accepted by Vanguard Press. ...

Ted Geisel (Dr. Seuss) seated at desk covered with his books."The story of Geisel being rejected twenty-seven times before his first book was published is often repeated, but the details are worth relating. Geisel says he was walking home, stinging from the book's twenty-seventh rejection, with the manuscript and drawings for Mulberry Street under his arm, when an acquaintance from his student days at Dartmouth College bumped into him on the sidewalk on Madison Avenue in New York City. Mike McClintock asked what Geisel was carrying. 'That's a book no one will publish,' said Geisel. 'I'm lugging it home to burn.' McClintock had just that morning been made editor of children's books at Vanguard; he invited Geisel up to his office, and McClintock and his publisher bought Mulberry Street that day. When the book came out, the legendary book reviewer for the New Yorker, Clifton Fadiman, captured it in a single sentence: 'They say it's for children, but better get a copy for yourself and marvel at the good Dr. Seuss's impossible pictures and the moral tale of the little boy who exaggerated not wisely but too well.' Geisel would later say of meeting McClintock on the street, '[I]f I'd been going down the other side of Madison Avenue, I'd be in the dry-cleaning business today. ...' "
