Narwhal: Revealing an Arctic Legend:

This exhibit will present Inuit perspectives on their connections to narwhals as well as the latest scientific knowledge about these fascinating animals. Through firsthand accounts from scientists and Inuit community members, the exhibition will reveal how traditional knowledge and experience, coupled with scientific research, heighten our understanding of these animals --and our changing global climate.

RSIC COMMUNITY INFORMATION MEETING

Wednesday, September 19, 2018
5-7 p.m., presentation at 6 p.m.
34 Reservation Road, Reno; Multi-Purpose Room

SPAGHETTI BOWL XPRESS

Phase One Project Update,
Coordination with the Colony

I-80 Eastbound from Wells Avenue to I-580 Southbound Ramps
I-580/US 395 from Spaghetti Bowl Southbound to Mill Street

The Nevada Department of Transportation (NDOT) will be sharing information about Spaghetti Bowl Xpress, phase one of the Spaghetti Bowl Project in Northern Nevada. Phase one will positively impact future transportation in the Truckee Meadows region, and directly affect traffic flow to the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony in Reno. Construction is expected to begin in 2020.

We need your continued involvement. Please attend this meeting to ask questions and provide feedback about this proposed project. Project representatives will be available to discuss impacts, improvements, access, landscape/aesthetics, and more about Spaghetti Bowl Xpress. We encourage comments and questions. The meeting will be an open house format with a presentation at 6 p.m. A question-and-answer period will follow. Your input is greatly appreciated. You can learn more about the project at www.ndotspaghettibowl.com.

Submit questions or comments to Dale Keller, Project Manager, NDOT, 1263 South Stewart St., Carson City, NV 89712, dkeller@dot.nv.gov or (775) 888-7603. Comments will be accepted through October 19, 2018.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, longevity of life is a blessing from the Creator, a blessing for family and a blessing for a community which benefits from the knowledge and experiences this individual brings to all; and

WHEREAS, the Reno-Sparks Indian Colony recognizes with respect and admiration the contribution of all our elders and senior citizens; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas McGinty was born in Reno, Nevada on September 15 and spent much of his childhood in the region including: Sparks, Fallon, Lovelock, Carson City, and Loyalton, Calif., plus, today he resides in Sparks, Nevada; and

WHEREAS, in 1935, Mr. Thomas McGinty graduated from the only off-reservation Indian boarding school—the Carson Indian School—which later become known as the Stewart Indian School, to which thousands of Native American students attended; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Thomas McGinty was a Corporal in the United States Army, enlisting on April 22, 1941, and nobly serving his country during World War II, and being honorable discharged on Dec. 5, 1945; and

WHEREAS, also in 1945, Mr. McGinty married Marlene Rodriguez of Lovelock, and the couple raised eight children, and was blessed with five grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren, and enjoyed a 48-year marriage until her passing in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGinty was a well-known and esteemed mechanic for the Reno Pontiac dealership located at 4th and Sierra streets; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGinty's exceptional machinist skills took him and his loving family to Rancho Cordova, California, where he built a career as an engineer for Aerojet, a rocket and missile manufacturer for NASA; and

WHEREAS, after retiring from this high security, often top-secret job with Aerojet, Mr. McGinty retired and move back to Nevada where he still resides; and

WHEREAS, Mr. McGinty has always been known for his kind manner, gentle approach to life, and his nearly continuous smile; and

WHEREAS, four-days a week, Mr. McGinty uses the Washoe County Senior shuttle transportation to enjoy the fellowship, including lunch with all our elders at the RSIC Senior Center; and

WHEREAS, as a centenarian, today and every day, Mr. McGinty should be honored for his 100-plus years on this earth;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT PROCLAIMED, I, ARLAN D. MELENDEZ, CHAIRMAN OF THE RENO-SPARKS INDIAN COLONY, do hereby honor Mr. McGinty for his long-life and prosperity, and wish him many, many more.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have here unto set my hand and affix my seal this 14th Day of September 2018.

ArLAN D. MeLendeZ
