The 2020 Library of Congress Lavine/Ken Burns Prize for Film

This annual national prize, now in its 2nd year, is designed to provide finishing funds, including outreach and marketing, for feature length U.S. historical documentaries in the tradition of Ken Burns. Appropriate submissions are rough or fine cuts of films focusing on U.S. history that use inclusive voices, reflect the highest standards of accuracy and original research, and are driven by compelling storytelling. The goal of this annual award is to encourage and support quality U.S. history documentary films so that a greater number will be seen by a wider audience.

All submissions meeting the eligibility requirement will be carefully reviewed and considered, with the finalists selected by a national jury comprised of leading documentary filmmakers and historians. The winner will be selected by the Librarian of Congress, Dr. Carla Hayden, in consultation with Ken Burns.

On September 30, 2020, the Library of Congress will host the Award Ceremony and Dinner at the Jefferson Building in Washington, D.C.

REFRESHMENTS SERVED

Introducing Smithsonian Open Access

Welcome to Smithsonian Open Access, where you can download, transform, and share millions of the Smithsonian's online collections and nearly two centuries of research data, for any purpose, for free, without further permission from the Smithsonian. The Smithsonian's Open Access release spans the worlds of art, science, culture, history, design, and technology – in 2D and 3D. What will you imagine?

GET STARTED »

Unlocking the Smithsonian

As part of the launch of Open Access, the Smithsonian is releasing roughly 2.8 million 2D and 3D images, metadata, and research data. Eventually the majority of more than 155 million objects, 2.1 million library volumes and 156,000 cubic feet of archival collections could be released. That's a lot. In this article, two digital experts tell us what it all means.

Hearts of Our People

Last month, Hearts of Our People: Native Women Artists, the first major thematic show to explore the artistic achievements of Native women, opened at the Smithsonian American Art Museum's Renwick Gallery. Read how the exhibition curators put this groundbreaking, eye opening exhibition together, along with a panel of Native artists and Native and non-Native scholars from across the country.

Friends of Chief Caleen Sisk Are Raising a Legal Defense Fund

Click here to hear Chief Caleen Sisk explain the legal charges she is facing

Our good friend Chief Caleen Sisk is facing charges leveled after she announced her campaign for State Assembly in 2018 -- as the first indigenous woman to run for office in California's District 1. The charges involve her timesheets for caring for a beloved elder in the Winnemem tribal village. Although Caleen did not win the election, we know how important her leadership is, and we continue to stand alongside her as she and her lawyers work to prove her innocence. Caleen needs $40,000 to defend herself, and her friends have come together so far to raise more than $35,000. Can you help us get to the goal by March 11, which is Caleen's next day in court? Please donate now.

US successfully planned for the 'endless frontier' of science research in 1945 – now it's time to plan the next 75 years Marc Zimmer, Connecticut College

A symposium celebrated a roadmap for the American scientific enterprise laid out 75 years ago. What should be included in a US research plan that would last through the rest of this century?

We're heading to San Antonio, TX, for the 20th Annual Travois Indian Country Affordable Housing & Economic Development Conference on Tuesday, March 31-Thursday, April 2, 2020.

This one-of-a-kind educational conference provides help for tribal entities interested in securing funds for affordable housing and economic developments in Native communities. We share tips and tools for using the Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) program and the New Markets Tax Credit (NMTC) program and other financing sources like impact investments, grants and more. These two federal tax credit programs have directly led to more than $1.4 billion of new and rehabilitated homes, businesses and services in Indian Country.

Travois staff, experienced tribal developers and industry partners will share best practices on how to move developments forward — planning, securing financing, architectural design, construction monitoring, asset management and compliance and more.

Host hotel: Omni La Mansión del Rio 112 College St. San Antonio, TX 78205
We have secured a block of rooms with discounted pricing for conference attendees. Booking information will be provided in your registration confirmation email. Attendees will receive the special group rate of $219/night plus tax and fees. The deadline for discounted pricing is Friday, March 6.

Home Hosting Opportunities for Kenyan and Algerian Youth in April and June

These short-term home hosting opportunities are one of the easiest (and most fun!) ways to experience another culture and to share the unique beauty, culture and hospitality of our region and country. Cultural exchange is one of the most effective ways to build understanding between countries, providing a forum for guests to see the true America-and Americans to get a glimpse into another culture-breaking down stereotypes and broadening perspectives on both sides.

Youth Leaders from Kenya in April

NNIC is in need of 20 home hosts April 14-24 for our new Youth Leadership Program with Kenya (KYLP). Please contact KYLP Coordinator Ms. Stacy Kinion at skinion@nnic.org

Youth Leaders from Algeria in June

NNIC is also in need of 30 home hosts June 16-28 for the Youth Leadership Program with Algeria (AYLP). Please contact AYLP Coordinator Ms. Stacy Kinion at skinion@nnic.org
