1883 laws by us gov. to punish the lakota people!

4th. The "sun-dance," the "scalp-dance," the "war-dance," and all other so-called feasts assimilating thereto, shall be considered "Indian offenses," and any Indian found guilty of being a participant in any one or more of these "offenses" shall, for the first offense committed, be punished by withholding from the person or persons so found guilty by the court his or their rations for a period not exceeding ten days; and if found guilty of any subsequent offense under this rule, shall be punished by withholding his or their rations for a period not less than fifteen days, nor more than thirty days, or by incarceration in the agency prison for a period not exceeding thirty days.

6th. The usual practices of so-called "medicine-men" shall be considered "Indian offenses" cognizable by the Court of Indian Offenses, and whenever it shall be proven to the satisfaction of the court that the influence or practice of a so-called "medicine-man" operates as a hinderance to the civilization of a tribe, or that said "medicine-man" resorts to any artifice or device to keep the Indians under his influence, or shall adopt any means to prevent the attendance of children at the agency schools, or shall use any of the arts of a conjurer to prevent the Indians from abandoning their heathenish rites and customs, he shall be adjudged guilty of an Indian offense, and upon conviction of any one or more of these specified practices, or, any other, in the opinion of the court, of an equally anti-progressive nature, shall be confined in the agency prison for a term not less than ten days, or until such time as he shall produce evidence satisfactory to the court, and approved by the agent, that he will forever abandon all practices styled Indian offenses under this rule.

Supreme Court Considers Limiting EPA's Ability to Address Climate Change

Lauri Foti, The New York Times

Foti writes: "Members of the Supreme Court's conservative majority on Monday questioned the scope of the Environmental Protection Agency's ability to regulate carbon emissions from power plants, suggesting that the court could deal a sharp blow to the Biden administration's efforts to address climate change."

MARCH IS WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH:

Te Ata Thompson Fisher - Chickasaw Storyteller:

Te Ata Thompson Fisher, whose name means “Bearer of the Dawn,” was born Dec. 3, 1895, near Emet, Okla. A citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, Te Ata was an accomplished actor and teller of Native American stories.

Her career as an actor and storyteller spanned more than 60 years. During the prime of her career, she performed in England and Scandinavia, at the White House for President Franklin Roosevelt, for the King and Queen of Great Britain, and on stages across the United States.

Although Te Ata worked as an actor and drama instructor, she is best known for her artistic interpretations of Indian folklore, and for her children's book she co-authored on the subject.

Her world-renown talent has won her several honors including induction into the Oklahoma Hall of Fame in 1957, being named The Ladies’ Home Journal Woman of the Year in 1976, being named Oklahoma's Official State Treasure in 1987, and having a lake near Bear Mountain in New York named in her honor.

She is also the subject of a video, God's Drum, the proceeds of which have supported the Te Ata Scholarship Fund for Indian students at her alma mater, the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma in Chickasha, Okla.

Te Ata died Oct. 26, 1995 in Oklahoma City, though her legacy and influence on the Native American storytelling traditions continues to this day.

Hey all my relations, got to see Red Road, the short film I was cast in last summer. Big thanks to Johnny Arlee who was a cast member and assisted me with my Salish language lines. It played at the Garland Theater. I've been in a few movies but this is the first time I've seen myself on the big screen. A great story put on film, a great crew, and a great cast really brought it all together. Way to go counting Coup Media! A'ho

So proud of Dakota Louise and all the Native cowboys like Cody Jesus, Keyshawn Whitehorse, Stetson Lawrence to name a few. Its always a joy to interview them at the INFR.

It's so awesome they had the all Native American squad at the Professional Bull Riders Global Cup USA. Congratulations cowboys.

At Cartel Extermination Site; Mexico Nears 100K Missing

Maria Verza, Associated Press

Verza writes: "For the investigators, the human foot - burned, but with some fabric still attached - was the tipoff: Until recently, this squat, ruined house was a place where bodies were ripped apart and incinerated, where the remains of some of Mexico's missing multitudes were obliterated."
